

Dancing on the Edge
a weekend workshop on Connection; Relationship and Attachment

With

Sietske Venema and Caitriona Nic Ghiollaphádraig

Human beings are hardwired for Connection. Through the Open Floor Movement Practice, Encounter and Brain Science we will explore our connections, and the neurological pathways that have influenced our relationships and attachment style.

Through the ritual of Encounter, we will have the opportunity to investigate the dynamics/patterns of Relationships and Attachment.

Experience of Embodied Presence and /or Open Floor Encounter essential
